

Photo by Thomas T. Taber, Thomas T. Taber Collection (RR75.30), Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania (PHMC)

Among the locomotives obligingly displayed for R&LHS members at Delaware & Hudson's Colonie, N.Y., shops during a September 1936 society excursion was experimental 4-8-0 engine No. 1403 (at left), named for D&H President L.F. Loree.

4 Our Society

The winding path to No. 200: A look back at R&LHS milestones and personalities, and a look ahead.
By J. Parker Lamb

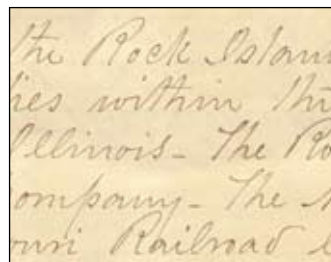

48 Lincoln for the Defense

On the 200th anniversary of his birth, a look at one of Abraham Lincoln's most famous legal cases.
By David A. Pfeiffer

29 A Chronology

Charting the course of the Bulletin and Railroad History through the years.
By Dan Cupper

56 Amtrak's F40PH

The compact locomotives that put Amtrak on solid footing.
By Kevin J. Holland

36 Reaching 200

The first trains to attain 200 km/h and 200 mph, and other notable rail speed-record achievements.
By William D. Middleton

66 Roll Call of 200s

A roster of North American locomotives that have worn the road number 200.
By Dan Cupper