

After Promontory

ONE HUNDRED FIFTY YEARS OF TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILROADING

MILDRED WESTERVELT
WARNER
TRANSPORTATION
MUSEUM

PART
OF THE

University of Alabama System.

CRPA

CENTER FOR RAILROAD
PHOTOGRAPHY & ART

FREE

Photography is After Promontory's literal and metaphorical lens on the transcontinental railroad boom. Both the book and the exhibition feature period photographs by some of the most accomplished photographers in the nation's history, artists such as William Henry Jackson, Timothy H. O'Sullivan, and Carleton E. Watkins. The Center for Railroad Photography & Art (www.railphoto-art.org) and the Warner Transportation Museum have collaborated to present this exhibition.

TUESDAY – SATURDAY | 10:00 AM - 4:30 PM

NOW THROUGH SEPTEMBER 9, 2023
TRANSPORTATION.MUSEUMS.UA.EDU

LOCATION

1901 JACK WARNER PARKWAY, TUSCALOOSA, AL 35401